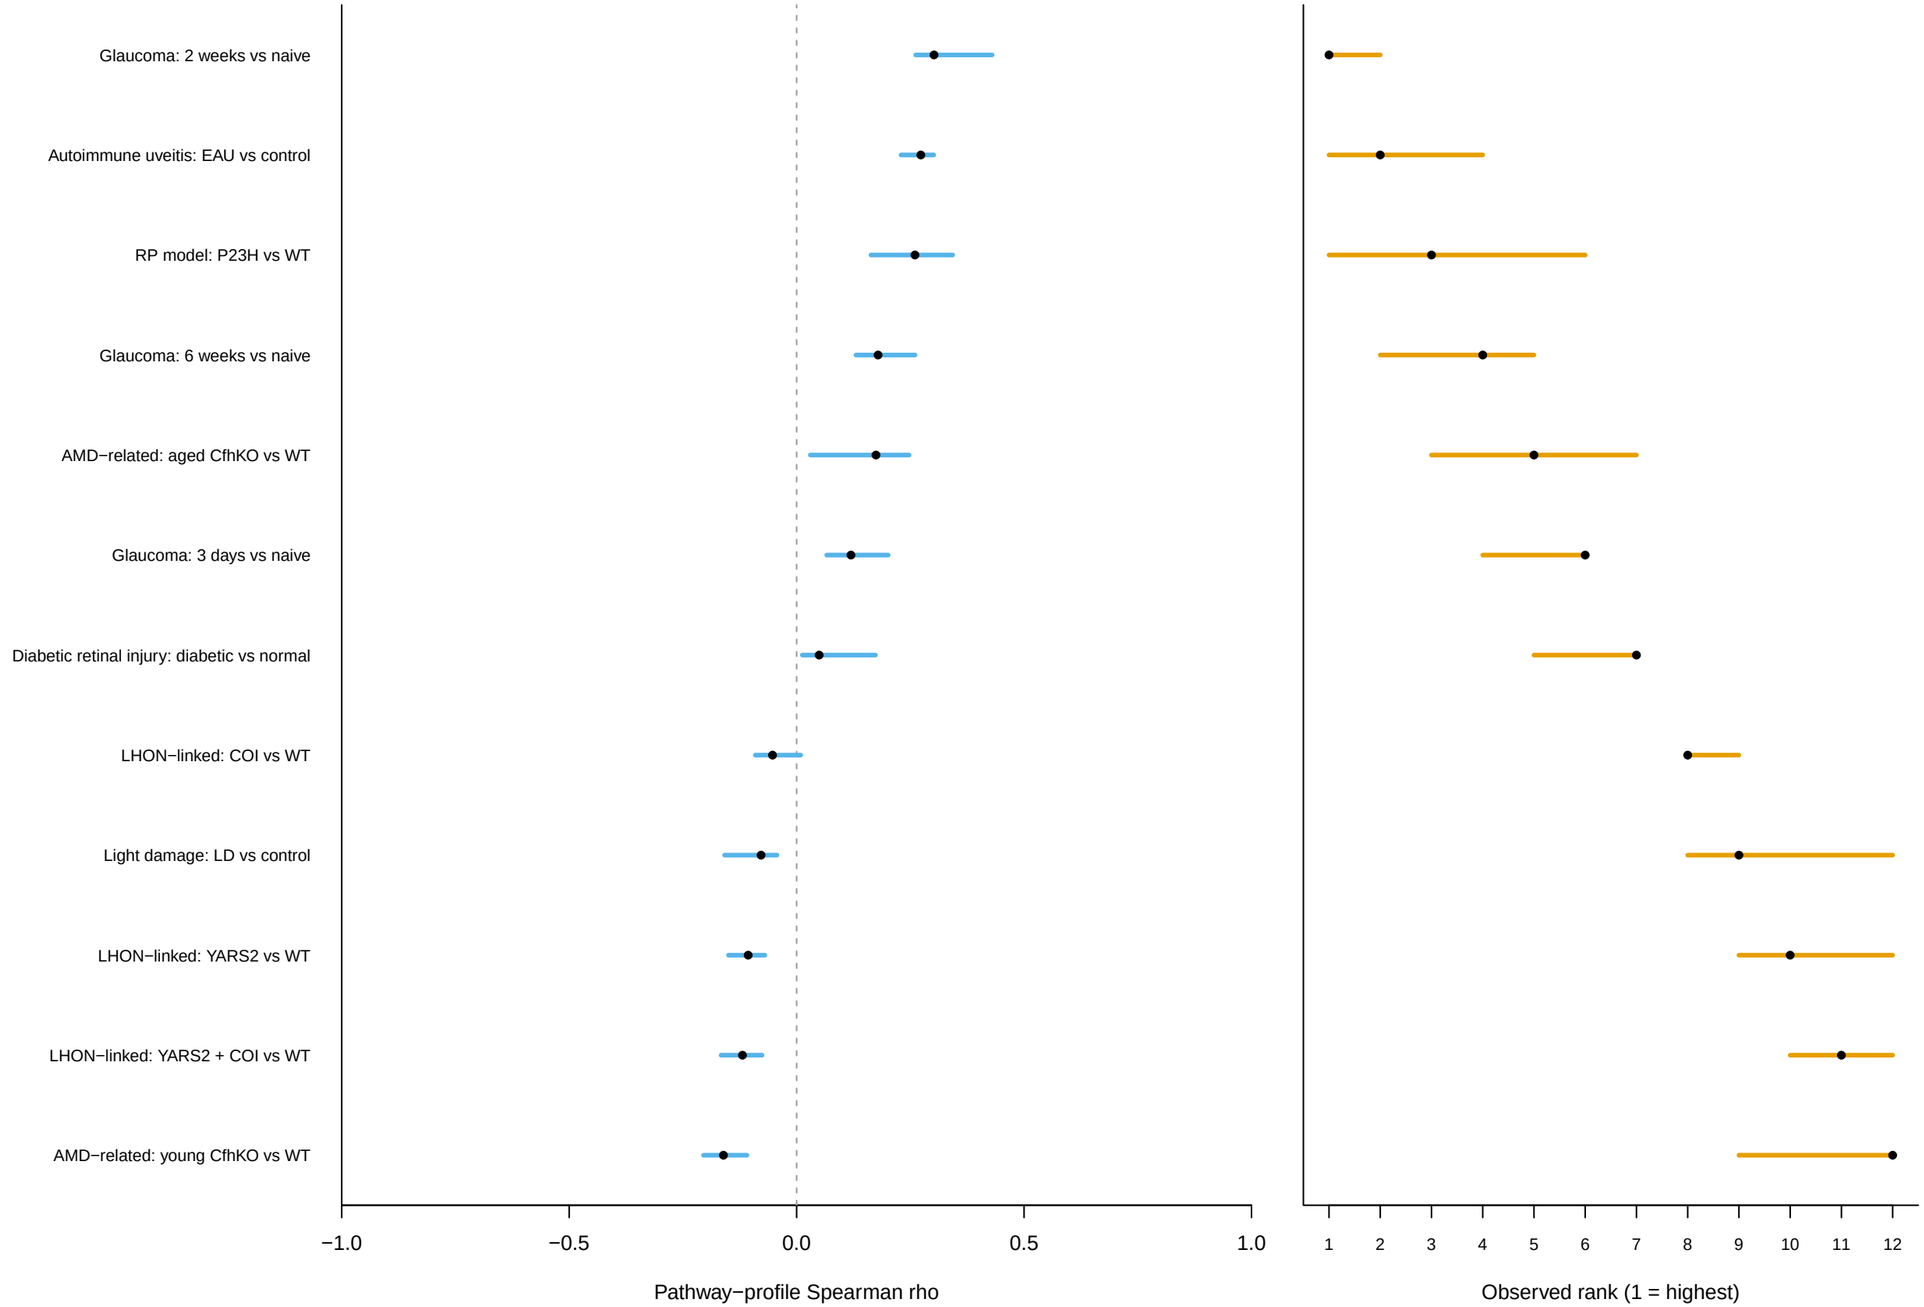
Pathway ranking stability after related−program deletions

Black points: original 799−pathway results | Lines: minimum−to−maximum deletion−scenario values



Neighborhood: shared genes / size of smaller pathway >= 0.5; remove the anchor and all its direct neighbors.

Ranges shown retain at least half of the pathways; all deletion scenarios are saved. Duplicate neighborhoods count once.

Sensitivity ranges are not confidence intervals, significance tests or probabilities of being the closest disease.